

I'm appalled by
Sinclair
Broadcasting's
airing of a
one-sided anti-Kerry
propaganda film (Stolen Honor) this
close to a national election. This is a perfect example of
how large media
corporations
routinely ignore
their responsibility
to serve the public
interest in an effort to further their own bottom line. This blatant effort to sway a
national election
should not be allowed to happen.